Generation of Confirmation fee/University remaining Fee deposit Letter

After the seat allotment, the candidate has to deposit the Confirmation fee/University remaining fee through the following modes:

1. Demand Draft (at the University counter)
2. “Confirmation Fee deposit” link available on www.onlinemmmut.in. The online fee deposit is allowed only through this link via Net Banking

After the online deposit, the Confirmation letter containing the details of candidate will be generated. It is must for the confirmation of allotted seat. If this letter is not generated due to any reason please contact immediately.

Note: The confirmation fee deposit through RTGS/NEFT is not allowed because this deposit will not contain the details of candidate in transfer slip and no confirmation letter will be generated, and the allotted seat will remain unconfirmed in the record of admission cell and it may be allotted to the next candidate in merit. The University will not be responsible for the deposit of Confirmation fee through RTGS/NEFT or any other mode than specified above.
